

WEEKLY MARKET PRICE

26-2024

- Cotton prices decreased in New York, Pakistan, and China, while slightly increasing in India over the past week.
- Cotton and polyester prices in China have diverged over the past week. Polyester Staple Fiber (PSF) prices surged on Monday, while cotton prices continued their downward trend. Viscose Staple Fiber (VSF) prices also rose this Monday.
- In the past week, cotton prices in India have rebounded, cotton yarn prices have remained stable.
- Last week, cotton yarn prices in Pakistan saw a modest decrease, mainly due to reduced market activities during the Eid holidays. The noticeable uptick in yarn imports, along with a recent drop in cotton fiber prices, led domestic yarn manufacturers to reduce their prices.
- This week, Polyester Staple Fiber (PSF) prices in China have experienced a notable increase. In India, PSF prices are expected to rise further with the upcoming revision on July 1st.
