

WEEKLY MARKET PRICE 15-2025

- The global cotton market is entering a seasonally favorable period for prices as the next harvest remains several months away. However, the recent spike in U.S. import tariffs on Asian apparel goods has disrupted market expectations.
- India's cotton yarn export prices held steady this week across most categories. India's PSF prices were flat this week at 100 rupees/kg in local currency and US$1.16/kg in dollar terms.
- Pakistan's carded yarn export prices were broadly unchanged week-over-week. PSF prices in Pakistan held steady this week at 338 rupees/kg, or US$1.21/kg.
- China's cotton yarn import prices fell further this week, echoing the demand stagnation in East Asia. China: sharpest weekly fall in PSF and PFY since the pandemic.
